

AWAKEN

MARISTS 200>

Have you ever seen the dawn? That moment when it is no longer dark, but not yet fully light. It is a moment when our vision sharpens and our senses slowly attune to the things before us - the arising movement and the emerging sounds. It is a twilight moment full of anticipation and expectancy in what lies ahead. The dawn is opening a door to a new day!

We celebrate our Marist Bicentenary with the same expectancy and hope of the awakening of a brand new day. A time to reflect on what has been and look ahead to what is to come.

It is a moment of gratitude for the inspiring vision and life of Saint Marcellin and the early Marists.

It is a moment of giving thanks for each one of us, for all Marists, and for our God who has journeyed with us.

It is a moment of discernment as we look to the future, one full of excitement and hope as we are led by the Holy Spirit in the particular way we make Jesus Christ known and loved.

We take up the invitation of Pope Francis to 'Wake up the world! Be witnesses of a different way of doing things, of acting, of living!'

So let us as Marists welcome every sunrise full of hope as we embrace all the opportunities the new day brings.

'Arise, awake, and Christ will shine on you' (Eph 5:14).
